

Southern Appalachian Botanical Society Research Grants

Contributed by aneely on Jan 15, 2019 - 07:49 PM

Research proposals are now being accepted for the 2019 Earl Core Student Research Award from the Southern Appalachian Botanical Society. The award provides up to $1,200 in support of student research projects in plant taxonomy, systematics, or ecology. Undergraduate and graduate students are eligible to apply, but the student and advisor must be members of SABS to be considered. More details and the application can be found at <http://sabs.us/awards/earl-core-student-research-award/>. Proposals are due by February 28, 2019 to be considered. Awards will be announced in April.
